Raid Turns Up Moonshine Liquor

CITY POLICEMEN RAID CLARK AND John Shirley raided the home of Lee Ernest Smith, Negro resident of North Graham St. Saturday afternoon and seized nine gallons of moonshine liquor and some beer.

TWO CHARGES WERE FILED AGAINST Smith, one for possession of over the legal amount of taxed beer and for possession of untaxed liquor for purpose of sale.

"DEAR ABBY"

CLERIC'S CORNER

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I don't know the circumstances which prompted the clergyman to ask the girl who was planning to be married if she were pregnant, but I have always found that there are two sides to every question. I have personally married almost 11,000 couples, and hundreds of those couples have asked me to back-date the marriage license from one to five months. I kept an accurate record, and in one year out of the 556 couples I married, 354 asked that their wedding certificates be falsely dated. I rather imagine my experience is characteristic of most preachers and if I were you, I don't believe I would have cast this particular minister into "outer darkness" so quickly, without having heard HIS side of the story.

A KENTUCKY CLERGYMAN

Dear Abby: I was a practicing minister for a decade but now I am a lawyer. I can understand why a clergyman would ask a girl if she were pregnant before he undertook to perform the marriage ceremony. A marriage is a covenant freely assented to by two parties, and when the vows are not exchanged in freedom, the marriage is illegal according to the law and invalid also as a religious sacrament. If the girl is pregnant, there can possibly be coercion on the part of the girl, her family, or even on the part of the groom. If the couple are being "forced" into marriage because a baby is on the way and they feel that marriage is the only solution to the problem, the marriage could be considered a "forced" one, and, hence, illegal.

It is better that a child be born out of wedlock in some cases than for two persons to marry out of compulsion rather than love.

MINISTER TURNED LAWYER

Dear Abby: Come on, now. I've read your column faithfully and with admiration and interest, but that letter from the mother who was "disgusted" because the clergyman asked her bride-to-be daughter if she were pregnant behooves me to put in my nickel's worth.

I live in a small town, but I'd say that one bride in four has covered a pregnancy of from two to four months with a bridal gown and white flowing veil. Check with any clergyman and you will understand why he ask such a question. It is embarrassing for them to have to baptize all those "premature" babies so soon after the wedding.

Dear Abby: I was disappointed to find one as knowledgeable, mature and influential as you rapping a clergyman for having asked a couple, who came to discuss their intended marriage, if the girl were pregnant. The minister was only doing his duty. A minister is not a "marryin'-Sam." The reading of the ritual and pronouncing the couple husband and wife is only part of the pastoral obligation. It is important to learn if the couple has had premarital relations. If they haven't, they will be proud to say so. If they have, and are truly sorry, the clergyman can either give them absolution or invoke God's forgiveness.

Then, too, if the clergyman knows that the girl is pregnant, he can guide them in planning an appropriate wedding, if they sincerely desire to marry. Otherwise, he can explain that there are alternatives. Some "forced" marriages are worse than none. In trying to exonerate you, I rationalized that maybe one of your staff had written the answer without your having seen it. It didn't sound like the DEAR ABBY I have been reading all these years.

A MINISTER

Dear Minister: Thank you for giving me the benefit of the doubt, but I accept the responsibility for every answer that appears in my column. I confess that I was not aware of the necessity of a clergyman to ask a bride if she were pregnant. But judging from the number of reprimands I have received for having criticized a clergyman for having inquired, I was wrong and I beg to be forgiven.

Yankees Beat Athletics, Add to Lead

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
If Whitey Ford has his way, that two-hit shutout New York's Jim Bouton pitched was merely a tuneup for the opening game of the World Series against the Philadelphia Phillies.

An early tuneup, yes. But Bouton couldn't have appeared more set for a Series opener as the Yankees defeated Kansas City 4-0 Sunday and increased their American League lead to one game over the Baltimore Orioles, who split a doubleheader with Los Angeles.

The Yankees by no means have the pennant clinched, but each day they make Ford's Series plans less premature. The veteran left-hander and pitching coach mentioned the other day that he wouldn't start in the opener because the Yankees will use right-handers in Philadelphia.

Bouton, the team's winningest pitcher with 17 victories, would be the logical choice for the first game. His shutout against the Athletics was one of the best-pitched games New York has had this season.

He didn't allow a hit past the second inning, permitted just one baserunner past that point and didn't walk anyone.

The victory was the fifth straight for the Yankees, 13th in their last 16 games and 20th in the last 27, or since they started their sprint to the front. Before that spirit began—with a

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL Amendment No. 52 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas to wit:

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall have the power to provide by general laws for the establishment and operation (a) of industrial districts for the purpose of securing and developing industry, and (b) of hospital districts for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reconstructing or extending hospitals. The land boundaries of the respective said districts shall be fixed in the manner provided by the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. The said districts shall have such powers pertaining to the respective purposes aforesaid and may exercise the same in such manner as shall be provided by the General Assembly, including without limitation power to issue bonds and to levy taxes upon the taxable real and personal property in said districts, upon approval thereof by a majority of the qualified electors of said district voting thereon at an election called for such purpose. Provided, however, there shall never be levied a tax on the taxable real and personal property; (a) of any industrial district which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof; or (b) of any hospital district, which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, except that, the full said five (5) mills being levied under Amendment No. 17, the said hospital district may levy an additional tax of not to exceed one (1) mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in said hospital district. Provided further, that the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in an industrial district shall never exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, and the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in a hospital district shall never exceed six (6) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof.

SECTION 3. To such extent and in such manner as the General Assembly may provide, taxes collected under Amendment No. 32 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall be used for maintaining, operating and supporting district hospitals.

Travs Strike Back, Even Up Playoff

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Travelers, who survived a 10-hit San Diego attack Sunday and got a 2-0 victory meet the Padres here tonight for the Pacific Coast League title.

The shutout victory knotted the best-of-seven series at 3-3. Billy Smith, a relief specialist, started for Arkansas and gave up 10 hits in seven innings without letting a San Diego runner score.

Twice the Padres loaded the bases, once with no outs and once with only one away, but they couldn't score.

Fergie Jenkins relieved Smith in the eighth and pitched two full innings of no-hit ball.

Arkansas got its first run in the fifth inning. With two out and Lee Elia on second with a double, Bill Sorrell hit a hot grounder down the first base line. Tony Perez came up with it and tossed to pitcher Jim Coates, but Sorrell beat Coates to first. Elia darted for home and beat Coates' throw.

Costen Shockley gave Arkansas its second run with a sixth inning homer.

triumph over Boston in the second game of a doubleheader Aug. 22—New York was six games from the top.

Starting with that game, which snapped a six-game losing streak, the Yankees have played at a .741 rate. Baltimore, on the other hand, has split evenly in 30 games for a .500 mark while Chicago is 14-15 for .483.

That sequence of events has left the Orioles three behind and the White Sox four behind the Yankees in the loss column. Baltimore and Chicago each have 10 games remaining, the Yankees 14.

The White Sox nipped the Senators on a run-scoring single in the sixth inning by rookie Marve Staehle, who also won a game last Tuesday with a single. Gary Peters, who gave up a three-run homer to Roy Sievers in the first brought his record to 19-8.

The Angels put a slight damper on the Orioles' pennant hopes with an 8-5, 10-inning first game victory, but Baltimore came back for an 8-2 triumph in the nightcap. The White Sox remained two games behind with a 4-3 decision over Washington. In other AL games, Minnesota bombed Boston 12-4 and Detroit edged Cleveland 6-5 before losing 7-2.

In the National League, Philadelphia nipped Los Angeles 3-2, Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 9-6, San Francisco trimmed Pittsburgh 4-3 in 11 innings. Milwaukee beat Chicago 5-2 and Houston edged New York 1-0.

Gray Steps in to Lead Hogs to Victory

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Coach Frank Broyles' overabundance of quarterbacks came to his rescue here Saturday night, and Billy Gray stepped into the offensive backfield to lead the Razorbacks to a 14-10 triumph over Oklahoma State University.

About 40,000 people were on hand for the non-conference football season opener, and most of them were surprised when No. 1 quarterback Fred Marshall could not find the range with his throwing arm.

The problem was simple: A deep-seated bruise in the right shoulder, painfully hampering his throwing arm. Marshall threw several times, completed none, and had two intercepted.

Sophomore quarterback Ronnie South, unseasoned and hurtling from an ankle injury, was not prepared to fill in, although Marshall and South will be Arkansas' 1-2 punch at quarterback as the season continues.

Jon Brittenum, who got duty at quarterback last season, had been red-shirted, and Gray, who also quarterbacked last season, had been put in the secondary to strengthen the sophomore heavy defense.

When Marshall's arm failed, Gray came on to direct two scoring drives and still provided some key plays on defense.

Jim Lindsey capped a seven-play, 55-yard drive with an 18-yard spring down the sideline for a touchdown. Gray had set the play up with a 23-yard pass to end Jerry Lamb, the only pass to come Lamb's way during the game. And Gray helped Lindsey's scoring run by carrying out the quarterback option committing the defending end to himself and then pitching out to Lindsey, whose long-legged gallop whisked him past the defenders coming over to correct the mistake.

Lindsey's gain (73 yards on 12 carries) on end sweeps to the strong side of an unbalanced line, and the power thrusts of little Jack Brasuell (25 carries for 88 yards) kept the offense alive, under Gray's direction.

"Gray's a good man to have around," Broyles said.

The Cowboys tied it on a 40-yard, 13-play drive in the third quarter, with Larry Elliott scoring from the one. It took the Cowboys six plays to score from the Arkansas nine.

Arkansas came back with the ensuing kickoff to take the lead for keeps. Brasuell took it to the 20 and returned it to the 36.

Gray ran for two and then passed to Lindsey for 25. Brasuell carried three times for 10 yards and a first down. Gray ran for no gain, threw incomplete, ran for nine and then for three and a first down. Bobby Burnett ran twice for nine yards and Gray sneaked at center for a first down at the two. Burnett sailed over right tackle for the points.

The Cowboys got a 37-yard field goal from Charles Durkee in the fourth quarter, but posed no serious threat afterwards.

Broyles was pleased with the "I" formation debut, especially Lindsey's end runs and Brasuell's gains on the "blast play."

Section 1 of Article 6 of the Constitution shall read as follows: "The executive department of this State shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State, all of whom shall keep their offices at the seat of government, and hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; and the annual salaries of the aforesaid officers shall be as follows: Governor, $18,000; Lieutenant Governor, $3,600; Attorney General, $12,000; and Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State $10,000 each."

SECTION 2. The following provisions of the Constitution as they existed prior to the effective date of this amendment are hereby repealed: Section 1, 12 and 13 of Article 6; Section 11 of Article 19; Section 1 and 6 of Amendment 6; and Amendments 15 and 37.

where Bobby Nix and Lindsey block for him into the line on a straight ahead power play.

Arkansas' passing did not impress, for the Porkers only connected on three of 13 tosses. Broyles said he had planned to pass 20 to 25 times and that the passing will increase as the season continues.

"We've got good passers and great receivers," Broyles said. "We called Lamb's number eight times and we got it to him once. We've got to correct that. Lamb is the finest receiver in America today and Bobby Crockett is a real strong threat

Bunning Sets Down Phillies on Five Hits

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who said it's Richie Allen or Johnny Callison for Most Valuable Player honors in the National League?

What about Jim (Perfect Game) Bunning, the pitching portion of Philadelphia's key triumvirate?

Bunning, the 32-year-old right-hander acquired in an off-season trade with Detroit, allowed only a pair of unearned runs Sunday as he brought his record to 18-5 with a five-hitter in the National League leading Phillies' 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Phillies' victory, coupled with Cincinnati's 9-6 victory over St. Louis, reduced Philadelphia's magic pennant-clinching number to seven. Any combination of Philadelphia victories or St. Louis and Cincinnati defeats totaling seven will bring the Phillies their first flag since 1950.

The Reds and Cardinals are tied for second place, 6½ games behind the Phillies while fourth-place San Francisco remained seven back by beating Pittsburgh 4-3 in 11 innings. Elsewhere, Milwaukee defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and Houston blanked New York's Mets 1-0.

The American League leading New York Yankees shut out Kansas City 4-0, Baltimore whipped the Los Angeles Angels 8-2 after losing the opener of a doubleheader 8-5 in 10 innings, the Chicago White Sox edged Washington 4-3, Minnesota crushed Boston 12-4 and Cleveland downed Detroit after the Indians lost the opener 6-5.

The Phillies scored twice in the first inning against loser Jim Brewer before adding what turned out to be the winning run in the fourth inning.

The Dodgers were blanked until the ninth when Maury Wills singled, stole second and eventually scored on an error by Vic Power. A single by Tommy Davis scored another run before Bunning cut off the rally.

The Cardinals pulled into a 6-5 win over the Phillies, 9. NEW GLASGOW, N.S. — Tyronne Gardner, Sydney River, N.S., outpointed Leroy (Rocco) Jones, Halifax, 10, lightweights.

Pair Shot to Death

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Gerald D. Beck, 37, and his wife, Rita, 30, were found shot to death Saturday night at their home here.

Police Chief Myron Traylor said one of the couple's children said that Beck shot his wife, then himself with a pistol.

0 lead on homers by Lou Brock, Dick Groat and Mike Shannon, but the Reds ultimately snapped a 6-6 tie with two errors leading to three unearned runs in the eighth inning.

The Giants tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on Tom Haller's homer, then scored the decisive run in the 11th on an error, a steal of second by Haller and Hal Lanier's single.

Home runs by Felipe Alou and Rico Carty got the job done for the Braves. Alou's three-run homer in the fifth overcame a 2-0 Chicago lead built on home runs by Billy Cowan and Ernie Banks.

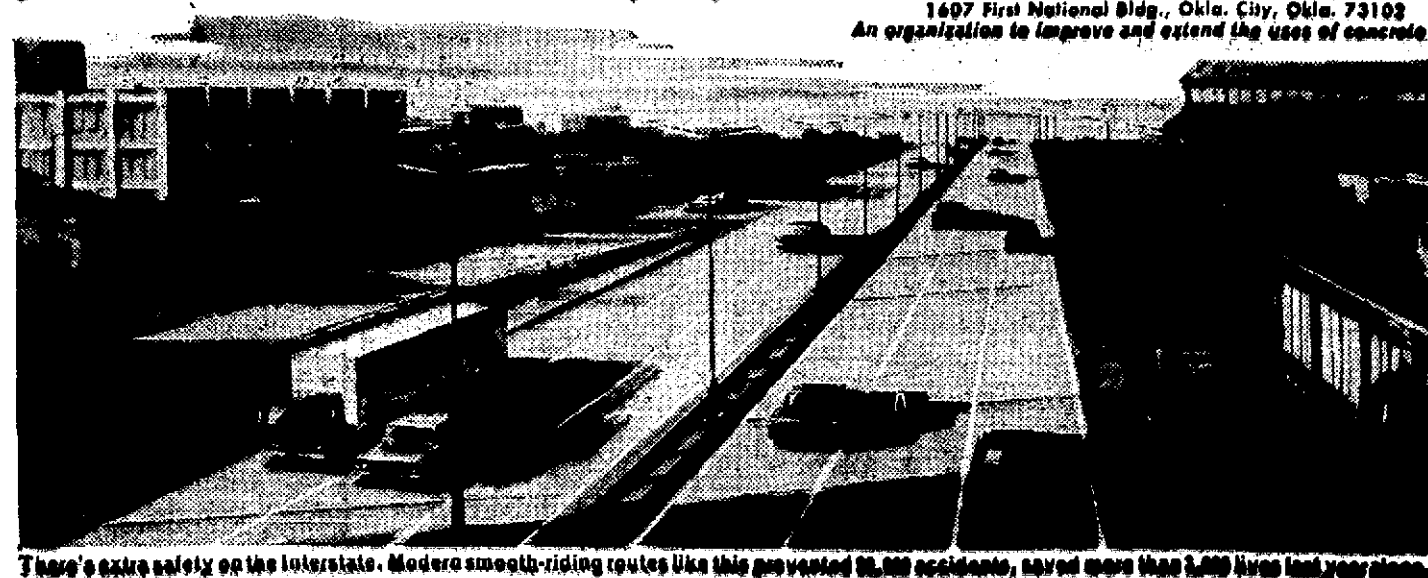

Houston's Bob Bruce struck out 10, walked none, allowed only two hits and didn't let a runner past first in outpitching the Mets' young Tom Parsons. Singles by Al Spangler and Rusty Staub and a sacrifice fly produced the only run.

Already the Interstate System has saved the average driver $150

These highways don't just cost money—they also save it! And the savings keep growing with the mileage. □ So far, the savings from reduced accidents, decreased driving time and lower car operating costs amount to $150 per driver. This year alone, they'll total $2½ billion. When the System is complete, savings will reach $6¼ billion a year. □ Actually, there's enough to be happy about just in the easier, more relaxed driving you get. It's the safest driving ever known. Right now, these roads are preventing 7,500 accidents every month. □ Another benefit is the way Interstate highways of concrete last. Concrete has the solid strength that keeps the smoothness and comfort in your ride while it minimizes the upkeep costs. □ Portland Cement Association.

There's extra safety on the Interstates. Modern smooth-riding routes like this prevented 22,000 accidents, saved more than 2,000 lives last year alone.

Many Upsets in Grid Play Others Close

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer

Ever wonder why all football coaches are pessimists and football prognosticators are slightly wacky? Take a look at last weekend's results, then another at what's just ahead.

After the first full weekend of college action this season, the major colleges who played can be listed this way:

Already upset: Syracuse, Washington, North Carolina, Missouri, Mississippi State, VMI, New Mexico.

Too close for comfort: Oklahoma, Duke, Louisiana State, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Arkansas, Kansas, Oregon, Washington State, Virginia Tech.

Scared but safe: Navy, Wake Forest, West Virginia, Utah.

Breathing easy: Army, Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Texas, Iowa State, Arizona State, Wyoming, Southern California.

Two of the upset victims and two whose coaches may feel a bit shaken were among the Top Ten teams in The Associated Press pre-season ratings. Four of the Top Ten were easy winners and two haven't played.

Washington, rated as the team to beat on the Pacific Coast and No. 7 in the AP poll, fell before the Air Force 3-2 as Bert Holaday, who beat the Huskies last year, did it again with a 23-yard field goal. Syracuse, No. 8, and considered the East's best, was dumped by Boston College 21-14 on a tie-breaking pass from Larry Marzetti to Bill Cronin in the closing seconds.

Some of the other prime upsets saw North Carolina State down North Carolina 14-13, Texas Tech whip Mississippi State 21-7, William and Mary beat VMI 14-12, California trim Missouri 21-14, Utah beat New Mexico 16-0 and South Carolina hold Duke to a 9-9 tie.

Mississippi, tabbed as No. 1 in the AP pre-season voting, opened with a convincing 30-0 victory over Memphis State and takes on Kentucky Saturday in a Jackson, Miss., doubleheader which also sends Mississippi State against Florida. Kentucky barely beat Detroit 14-6 while Florida trimmed Southern Methodist 24-8.

Texas racked up its 12th straight victory, 31-0 over Tulane, and should be favored over Texas Tech. The Longhorns are rated No. 4. Alabama, No. 6, easily beat Georgia 31-3 and has a fairly easy assignment against Tulane at Mobile. Illinois and Ohio State, 3 and 5, open this week against California and SMU, respectively.

Oklahoma, second in the pre-season ratings, trailed Maryland for some 56 minutes. Then John Hammond took over at quarterback and fired a 90-yard scoring pass to Lance Rentzel, an interception set up another touchdown and the Sooners won 13-3. Next for Oklahoma is Southern California, 21-0 winner over Colorado Friday.

Tenth-rated Navy saw quarterback Roger Staubach stopped but pulled out a 21-8 decision over Penn State. By comparison W&M should be easy. Auburn, No. 8, whipped Houston 30-0 and runs into Tennessee, which had a shaky 10-6 decision over Chattanooga.

Sues Steelworkers

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) - Virco Manufacturing Corp. at Conway has filed suit in Faulkner Chancery Court asking that members of the United Steelworkers Union be enjoined against picketing.

The suit asked that the union be required to deposit $50,000 bond which would be forfeited on violation of any injunction ordered.

Virco was struck by more than 100 members of the union on June 15. Since then violence has erupted several times at the plant.

Will Open Fair

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Miss America of 1964, Donna Axum of El Dorado will participate in opening activities of the Benton County Fair here Tuesday. Miss Axum will crown the new Miss Benton County at an opening-day pageant.

More than 100 members of the union on June 15. Since then violence has erupted several times at the plant.

Texas Tech Open Season in Conference

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

The fight for the Southwest Conference football championships opens this week, dwarfing a flock of intersectional games. It is of more importance and interest because defending champion Texas, also defending national champion, plays exuberant Texas Tech in the opening contest.

The two defense-minded teams clash at Lubbock Saturday night.

Texas opened the season last week with a 31-0 triumph over Tulane, with everybody enthusiastic except Coach Darrell Royal, who thought his team was pretty sloppy.

Texas Tech whipped Mississippi State 21-7 and everybody, including Coach J. T. King of Tech, thought it was just simply grand.

The league broke even in intersectional play last week but can't do it this week since there are five games unless one of them wound up in a tie.

In addition to Tech's victory over Mississippi State and Texas Tech's victory over Tulane, Arkansas won the other intersectional clash when it edged Oklahoma State 14-10.

On the losing side of the ledger were Texas Christian's 7-3 defeat by Kansas's Southern Methodist's 24-8 licking by Florida and Texas A&M's 9-6 loss to Louisiana State.

Saturday Arkansas plays Tulsa at Fayetteville. Baylor goes to Seattle to engage Washington. Rice hosts Louisiana State. Southern Methodist plays Ohio State at Columbus and Texas Christian gets Florida State at Fort Worth.

Tulsa and Ohio State will be playing their first games. Washington lost to Air Force Academy 3-2 last week while Florida State downed Miami 14-0.

The week's schedule starts off Friday night when Texas A&M meets Houston at Houston.

Frank Ives stepped to the door, intending to cross to the cook shack, but Flawrence at the stable waved him back with the rifle.

Ives stared a long time, wheeled back into the house and in a mood of black anger, ransacked it for something with which to even the score. The rooms had been stripped of weapons. He could get out by some other door, or a window, but a pistol was pretty poor insurance against a rifle, and it was a cinch the sheriff's watchdog had no intention of allowing Ives near enough to get any mileage out of a hand gun.

The saddle gun Renwick's wife had left Ives might as well be in Timbuktu as on the back of—

And where was that horse! Behind Flawrence in the stable or under that cook on his way to the sheriff?

In either event, the horse was no help to Ives, and he had only contempt for his own bumbling course. He had thought to have pruned all the weaknesses out of him but that woman's first look had cut straight to the mark!

This was a hard, bitter country filled with harsh bitter men, the dog-eat-dog sort he'd known most of his life. He had few illusions, none concerning the people he was up against. He knew, staring over this sunbaked yard, he could not afford any further mistakes.

He took a chair onto the porch and tipped back in it, silent, willing himself to take what rest he was able while scanning in his mind the dangers closing in on him, seeking to find some loophole which yet let him turn the tables.

Across the way Ed Flawrence lounged, waiting also. It was close on three o'clock when Ives spotted the dust, a

Welcome Home for Beetles

LONDON (AP)—A welcome-home for the Beatles started building up at London Airport today hours before they were due from a North American tour.

The first fans hitchhiked to the airport from all over England Sunday morning. They settled down to wait on the roof of the terminal building. The Beatles are due at 9:35 p.m.—3:35 p.m. (EST).

The Beatles, who flew 15,000 miles and made 32 half-hour appearances in the United States and Canada, are estimated by the British press to have made about $1 million from the trip.

with a Neuchâtes steer, and there was candy to consider.

Hollis Cotten, too, that he'd left to the Samaritan ministrations of Jerre French.

He got up, with Ed Flawrence watching to shake the cramps from his thinking. There was a way to beat that fellow if he could find it. What he did encounter with the weight of pure shock was another wiggling dust. Lifting out of the east it was coming fast. The only thing Ives could recall off there in that direction was Terrapin. Renwick's town filled with Renwick hardcases.

And where in heaven's name, was that Jerre French!

Although the herd's dust was closer, another glance was enough to convince Frank Ives this second file of riders. If they held to their pace, would be into this yard before the Cotten crows could be enclosed in the pens.

Flawrence tossed him a grin. "Better make your play."

It didn't seem possible the cook could have gotten so quickly to town. Perhaps he hadn't had to go that far. Possibly Sam Renwick, with a new set of orders, had been coming this way when the cook ran into him. With his kind of luck it figured, Ives mused, his thoughts running down a bleak spiral of regret.
